

Annual Report and Accounts

2004-05

jobcentreplus

Including Jobcentres and social security offices

“I wish I’d done it years ago!”

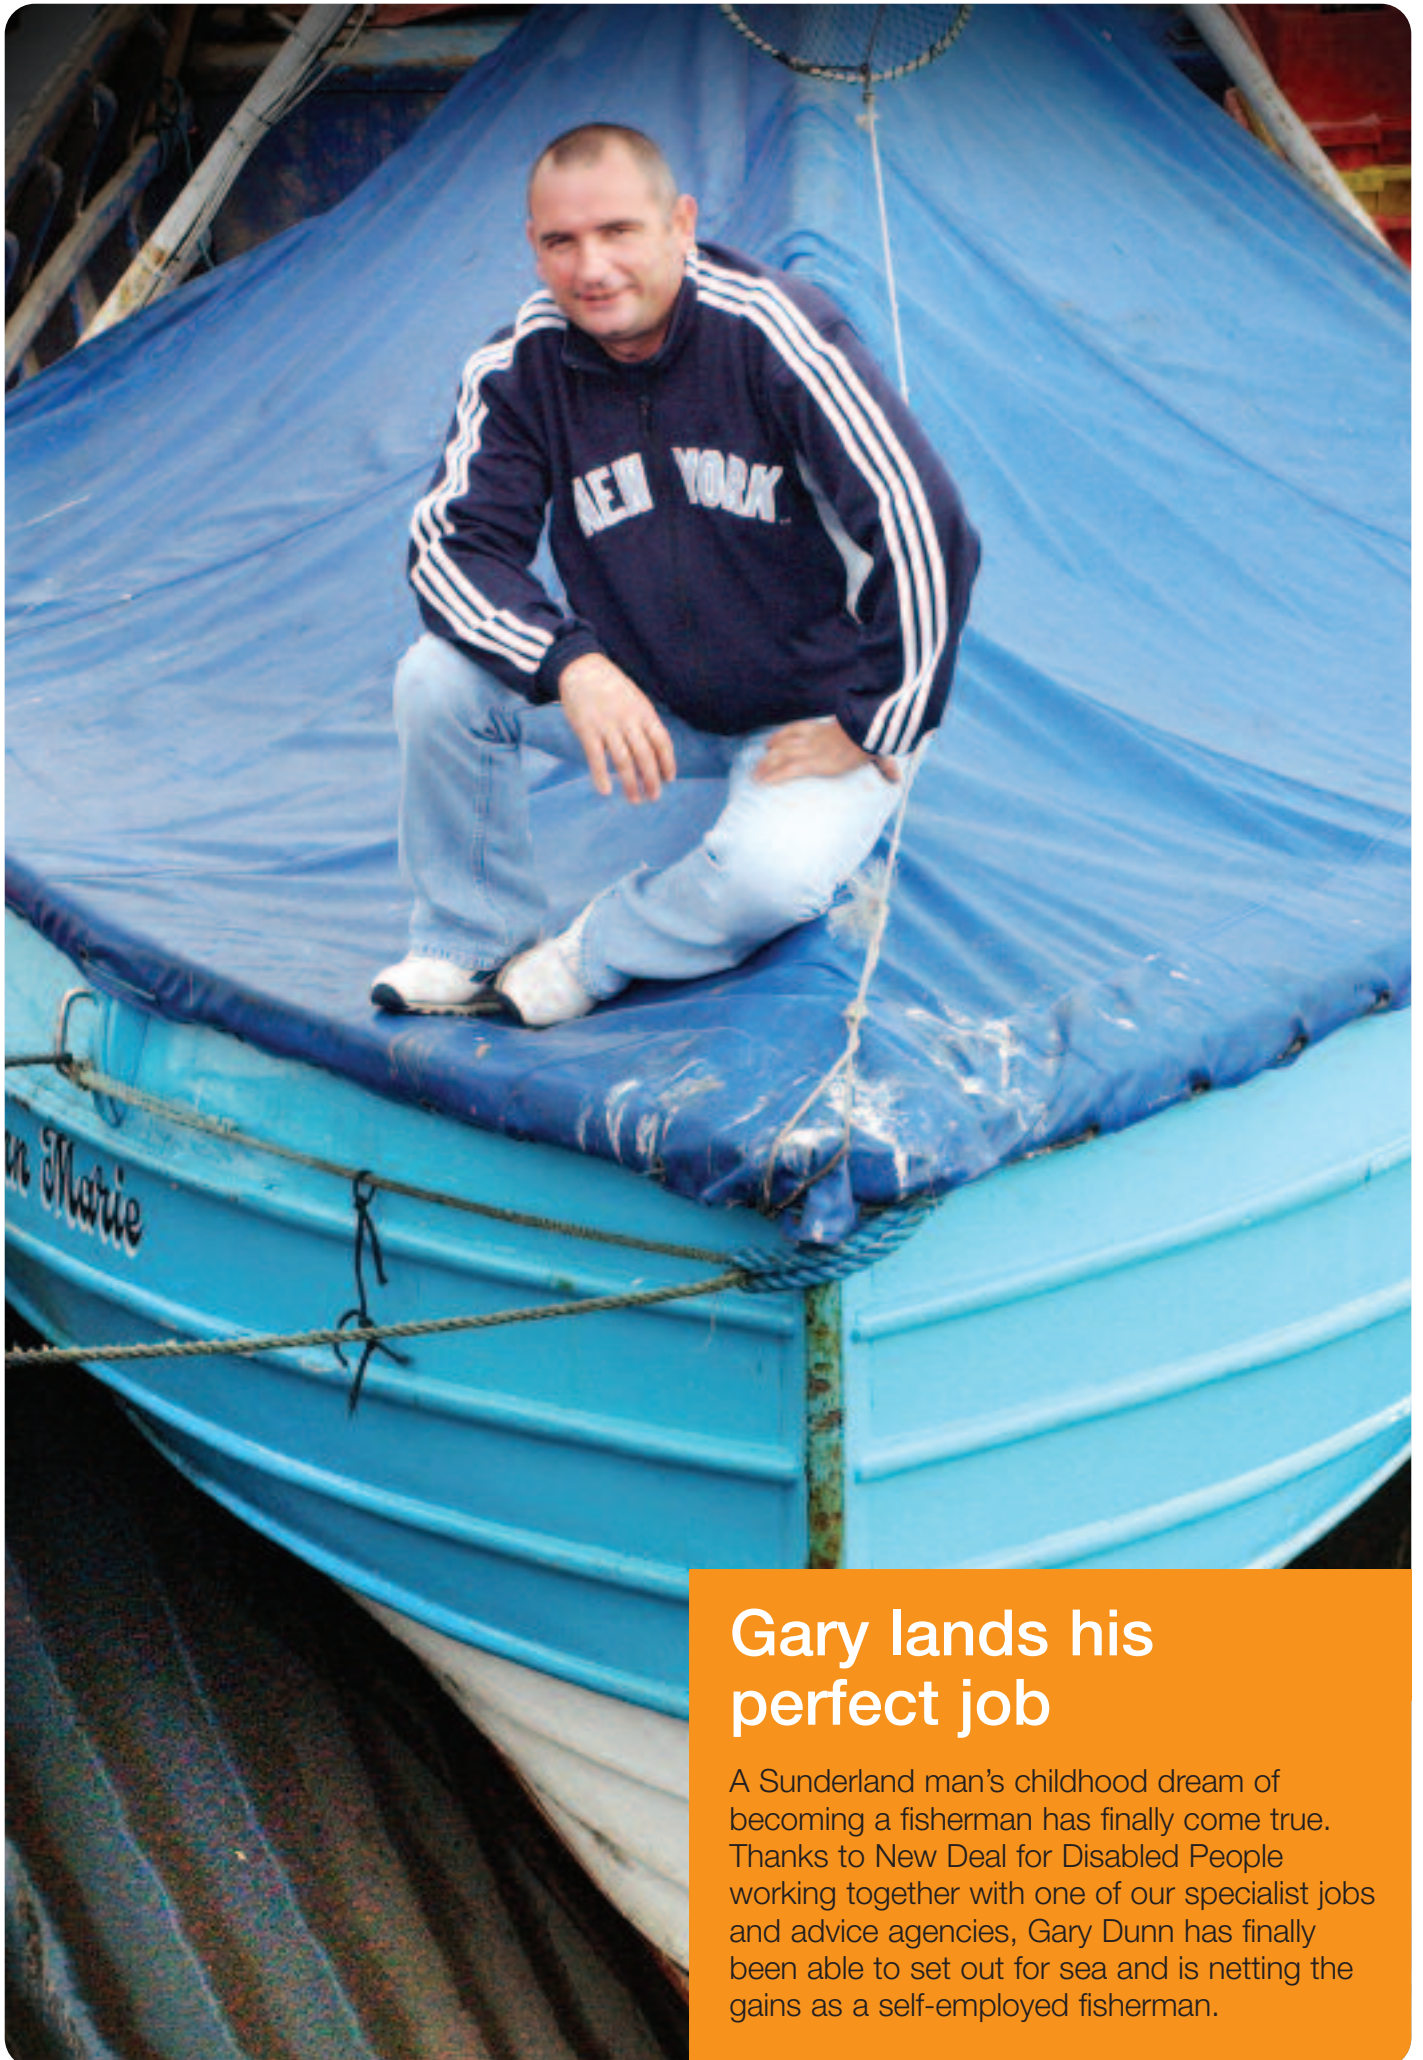

After several life changing events, Eva Bradley found herself a new career in beauty therapy. Eva went to her New Deal for Lone Parents adviser for advice. “The Jobcentre Plus office put me in touch with Inbiz, who sent me on a two day business management course. Inbiz also helped me to do a business plan, which in turn helped me to get some start-up funding,” she says.

The local gym provided her with a therapy room free of charge and in June, ‘Bodytol Beauty Therapists’ opened for business. “If people find something they really like doing, they should just go for it.”

Jobcentre Plus Annual Report and Accounts 2004-05

Presented to the House of Commons
pursuant to Section 7 of the Government
Resources and Accounts Act 2000.

Ordered by the House of Commons to be printed on 26 October 2005

Gary lands his perfect job

A Sunderland man's childhood dream of becoming a fisherman has finally come true. Thanks to New Deal for Disabled People working together with one of our specialist jobs and advice agencies, Gary Dunn has finally been able to set out for sea and is netting the gains as a self-employed fisherman.

Contents

Chief Executive review	5
Our purpose, objectives and values	9
Our performance	13
Performance results	17
Our achievements	23
Individual customers	25
Employers	31
Our partners	37
Our people	43
Managing our business	47
Appendix 1 – External recruitment for 2004-05	52
Annual Accounts	55
Foreword to the Accounts	56
The Certificate and Report of the Comptroller and Auditor General to the House of Commons	69
Financial statement and notes	71